

MISSOURI PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

JOB OPPORTUNITY

REGULATORY ECONOMIST III

The Missouri Public Service Commission is seeking to fill a Regulatory Economist III position in our Jefferson City office. This position will apply economic principles in reviewing, analyzing and writing recommendations and presenting testimony to the commission concerning electric utilities' decisions related to long range planning, fuel adjustment clauses, demand-side management (DSM) programs, DSM programs' evaluation, measurement and verification, DSM market potential studies, and demand-side programs investment mechanisms.

QUALIFICATIONS: One year as Regulatory Economist II with the Missouri Public Service Commission; or four years of professional experience performing economic analyses in a regulatory or utility environment and graduation from an accredited four-year college or university with specialization in economics or closely related area; or three years of professional applied research or teaching experience at the college level in the field of economics, or two years of professional experience performing economic analyses in a regulatory or utility environment, and a Master's degree in economics; or one year of professional experience performing economic analyses in a regulatory or utility environment and successful completion of all coursework requirements for a Ph.D. in economics. Experience with spreadsheets and word processing is essential. Additional computer simulation and database experience is preferred. The ability to work well in a team environment is a must.

The annual salary range is $53,208 to $55,416 with a potential salary increase at the completion of a successful probationary period. To be considered for this position, please submit an application, resume, a copy of all college transcripts and a one or two page technical writing sample by 5:00 pm June 19, 2015 to MO Public Service Commission, Reference Number UO090615, P.O. Box 360, Jefferson City, Missouri 65102 or via e-mail to pscjobs@psc.mo.gov. For additional information, visit http://psc.mo.gov/General/Career_Opportunities.

"An Equal Opportunity Employer M/F/D/V"